At New York yesterday money on call was easy at 2021/2 per cent.; last loan, 2 per cent.; closed offered at 2 per cent. Sterling exchange was steady with actual

The stock market yesterday, although at times characterized by a slight irregularity, displayed cumulative strength, ending in positive buoyancy. The volume of business decreased by about one-third, as compared with Tuesday's total, but the dealings were better distributed. The considerations bearing on prices were varied, but with the pivotal influence the comprehensive plans that are being formulated for the protection of the treasury gold reserve and resulting in restoration of confidence as to the financial outlook. local and foreign buying, for both accounts, on the progress made by the banks in securing pleages of deposits of gold for the subtreasury and a strong market for American securities in London. The early successive announcements of engagements of gold for shipment by to-day's steamer, aggregating $2,000,000, with a feeling of doubt entertained in some cases as to the efficacy of the efforts of the banks to prevent the rapid exhaustion of the treasury free gold, induced realizations and encouraged the larger bear leaders to attack the list. Prices reacted in most instances, the losses ranging up to 1% per cent. in Leath-er preferred. The other industrials and 14c; turpentine, 30@35c; glycerine, 19@22c; iodide grangers suffered to the extent of important fractions. Up to near midday the market remained feverish, although the only important further loss was in New Jersey Central. That stock broke 21/2 per cent. to 87%, rallied to 90 and reacted fractionally from that figure. Close to noon, however, portant developments on the bull side, and finally it was learned that a meeting of all the representative gold-shipping interest had been called, to take place at noon, at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co. Coincidentally reports of an authoritative character obtained circulation to the effect that the results of the missionary work of the leading bank presidents for the maintenance of the gold reserve would be more successful than had hitherto appeared probable. A general upward movement occurred, not only in stocks, but in the bond market, where some sensational declines had taken place, and prices were carried in some cases to the best figures of the forenoon. A considerable amount of buying for long account was noted, as well as extensive covering of shorts. The market continued firm in tene, though without special change in prices until about 2 o'clock, when it transpired that the foreign bankers' difficulty had been adjusted after the appointment of a committee to formulate the plan, the outlines of which had been agreed on, providing for a temporary cessation of gold exports. Verging on the close of the hour came also the information that the banks had begun to deposit gold at the subtreasury in large sums, and that an aggregate of at least $5,000,000 would be made by 3 o'clock. The buoyant, and a wholesale stampede of shorts occurred, carrying prices up from 1 to 4 per cent. in the leading shares. The closing was at the top notch. The bond market failed to respond fully to the late aggressive strength in the stock speculation, and, although marked improveheaviness was discernible in the usually inactive mortgages. The Usual Midsummer Quietude Prevailing in All Departments of Trade. Business in every department is characterized by the usual midsummer dullness. In dry goods there is nothing to distinguish the present season from the last, so far as the volume of trade is concerned. Not for three years have retailers gone beyond pressing needs in their purchases, and this condition is expected to continue until the coming elections settle the financial and economic policy of the Nation. Grocers report the prices on staples steady and trade enough doing to prevent the appearance of stagnationnothing more. There is very little interest shown in the grain market. The movement of cereals through this market was never lighter, although new wheat and oats are making some show in transactions. RESTRAINING ORDER IN STREET-CAR RECEIVERSHIP REFUSED.

Judge Woods's Ruling-Brakeman Oldham's Complaint for Divorce Is a Most Unusual One.

Yesterday Judge Woods, of the United States Circuit Court, refused to grant the Street-railroad Company appointing a trustee for the $4,000,000 of mortgage bonds, to succeed the Solicitors' Loan and Trust Company, of Philadelphia. The motion for the injunction grew out of the suit recently filed for the appointment of a receiver for the Citizens company.

HIS WIFE AN EPILEPTIC. Brakeman Albert Oldham's Ground for Divorce Complaint. Albert Oldham is seeking a divorce from his wife May on peculiar and unusual grounds. He alleges in his complaint, filed yesterday, that they were married at San Antonio, Tex., in July, 1892. Subsequently, he alleges, he learned his wife had been an epileptic from the time she was three years of age. This fact, he says, was concealed 21%c, closed at 21%c. from him and he was kept in ignorance of her affliction by the defendant and her family. Corn was quiet and kept within a narrow
